

Privacy Policy

ABOUT OUR PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy explains how Accuity Asset Verification Services (“AVS”), Inc., a RELX Group business, will use the personal information that is collected when you use our Service. This policy may be supplemented by additional privacy terms or notices set forth on certain areas of the Service.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

When you use the Service, AVS collects information from you in two ways: directly from your input and automatically from your use.

Information You Input

The types of personal information that the Service collects directly from you depends on how you interact with the Service and may include:

- Contact details, such as your name, email address, postal address and phone number; and
- Usernames and passwords.

Information collected automatically

The Service also automatically collects, through its servers and the use of cookies and similar technologies, certain information that tells us how you use the Service and may include:

- Internet Protocol (“IP”) address used to connect your computer to the Internet;
- Computer, device and connection information, such as browser type and version, operating system, mobile platform, unique device identifier (“UDID”) and other technical identifiers;
- Uniform Resource Locator (“URL”) click stream data, including date and time stamp, referring and exit URLs, search terms you used and pages you visited or searched for on the Service; and
- For location-aware services, the region, city or town where your device is located in order to provide you with more relevant content for where you are in the world.

Cookies or similar technologies

- Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or other device by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, store preferences as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

- The Service requires cookies and similar technologies in order to operate fully. We and our advertisers also use cookies and similar technologies to serve and offer relevant adverts.
- You can manage cookies through your browser's settings and other tools. However, if you refuse certain cookies, some features of the Service may not function properly.

USE OF YOUR INFORMATION

We use your personal information to:

- Provide and maintain the Service;
- Respond to your requests, inquiries, comments or concerns;
- Notify you about changes or updates to the Service;
- Evaluate and improve the Service and other products and services;
- Provide technical, product and other Service support and help keep the Service working, safe and secure; and
- Comply with our legal obligations.

We may use and disclose information that does not reveal your identity or permit direct association with any specific individual, such as browser and device information, anonymous usage data and aggregated information, for any purpose, except where we are restricted by law.

We may combine the personal information that you provide with information that we obtain from other sources or that already exists in our records for the purposes described above. Any use of your personal information for a purpose other than those described in this privacy policy will require your consent.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We also may disclose your personal information:

- to respond to or comply with any law, regulation, subpoena, court order or other legal obligation;
- to enforce and protect our rights and properties;
- to detect, investigate and help prevent security threats, fraud or other malicious activity; and
- to protect the rights, property or safety of our users, employees or others.

ACCESSING AND UPDATING YOUR INFORMATION

The Service may allow registered users to directly access their account information and make corrections or updates upon login at any time. The accuracy of such information is solely the responsibility of the user.

You may also request access to other personal information about you that you have provided to us through the Service and have any inaccuracies corrected by contacting us, subject to applicable law. To protect your privacy and security, we may require you to verify your identity.

INFORMATION SECURITY

AVS is committed to ensuring that your information is secure and protected. We use a variety of administrative, physical and technical security measures intended to safeguard your personal information.

CHANGES TO PRIVACY POLICY

We may change this privacy policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated revision date. Unless otherwise provided for, the previous version of the privacy policy will lapse and the updated version will come into force.
